

Duffy Hudson is an actor, director, writer, teacher and filmmaker. He has performed on Broadway and in theatres all across the U.S. as well as in television and in motion pictures. He has conducted several book discussions in libraries across the country including recent discussions on Of Mice and Men and The Maltese Falcon.

What they are saying;

"Duffy Hudson's dramatic reading and discussion of John Steinbeck's book Of Mice and Men was excellent. The Mason City Public Library audience loved it. Duffy has a remarkable way of bringing the characters and story to life. I highly recommend hosting any and all of the choices from Duffy's unique catalog of performances"

Mary Markwalter, Library Director Mason City Iowa

"The dust bowl whirled and swirled around us as Duffy Hudson brought George and Lennie to life through complex vocal delineations and physical mannerisms both of which served to make the onerous ending of Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men" even more ponderous and emotionally disturbing. This is a program not to be missed."

David Layne Taft University Library